

Yes you can change instructors! Take your copy of "The Driving Companion" to the new instructor and let them know you have already had some lessons. The new instructor will take you on a review of everything you have been taught so far. If you can demonstrate that you do all tasks already completed to standard then the new instructor will continue on.